

Name: _____ Date: _____

Bear Essential News is here and is written just for you. Use Bear's February edition to complete these activities.

News Highlights & In the Spotlight (page 5 Tucson Edition, page 3 Phoenix Edition)
Pick a News Highlights story to read, and find the 5W's & H in the story:

Who _____

Where _____

What _____

When _____

Why _____

How _____

Of the facts you wrote down, which one is the most important and why?

Mona's Kitchen (a food-tastic 12-page pullout section in Bear's February Edition brought to you by ASU Sustainability Solutions Initiatives) Good food helps bring people together.

1. Using the information on the page with the world map, figure out the food you eat that originates farthest away:

2. Search the insert and write down what an olla is!

3. What are three things you like best about sitting down to eat with family or friends?

Scien-Tastic!—Word Learning (brought to you by UofA College of Science)

Learn about the important work of a speech-language pathologist.

1. About how many words does an average adult know versus about how many words are defined in a big English dictionary?

2. Why is it important for young people and adults to keep learning words and how to use them?

Bear
essential news®

February WORK SHEETS

Name: _____ Date: _____

VOCABULARY

Power Word Scramble!

Power Words appear capitalized and in bold face each month in Bear Essential News.

For February, they are all found on the News Highlights and In the Spotlight stories.

Unscramble the letters to figure out each Power Word. To help, definitions of each word as they're used in the newspaper this month are provided as clues!

PAYPRCS

adj.—tough and aggressive, feisty

REEFDERD

adj.—put off for a later time

STYLAAN

n.—an expert or authority who offers opinions and insight for TV, radio, print or digital media

DIMN-GGGNOIBL

_____ - _____

adj.—unbelievably awesome or exciting

SINGHIT

n.—an expert look into something or a situation